Change of Address

Students are responsible for maintaining accurate personal information with the College. Changes to a student's address, name, telephone number, or other information affecting academic, permanent, or financial records should be reported to the Registration/Records Office or updated directly by the student in Populi, TCR's student information system.

Reviewed: June 3, 2026 by TCR Administration