

PAYMENT POLICY

A student, by the act of registering, automatically incurs a financial obligation to Technical College of the Rockies. This obligation must be satisfied by appropriate payment. This means that a student who registered for one or more classes is obligated to pay the full amount of the tuition and fees whether or not the student attends class. Failure to pay tuition and fees may result in cancellation of a student's registration. Unpaid accounts will be forwarded to a collection agency that may impact the student's credit rating and may result in additional collection fees, attorney fees, interest, or other costs. Technical College of the Rockies will not be able to register a student, provide semester grades, final transcript, or issue a certificate of completion to any current or former student who has an outstanding balance.
